

Closing Remark
18th VECONAC General Assembly
10-14 December 2018, Vientiane, Lao PDR

Fellow colleagues of ASEAN Veterans Federations!
Ladies and Gentlemen!

Our 18th VECONAC General Assembly has almost come to the end. On behalf of the Lao Veterans Federation and VECONAC 2018, I'd like to express my heartfelt thanks and gratitude to you all for your active participation and contribution in sharing your inputs, experiences and lessons that has made the meeting organised under a friendly, warm and constructive manner which is the key factor for the success of the meeting. This has reflected commitment, support and unity you all have extended to Lao Veterans Federation.

I believe the results of this meeting will be the fundamental element for the enhancement of the cooperation between and among the members of VECONAC. In addition, this will also contribute to promoting understanding, confidence and trust among the veterans of VECONAC in order to help one another maintain peace, stability and prosperity of the region.

Last but not least, may I wish Your Excellency and everyone good health, prosperity and every success in your noble tasks. I do hope you enjoy during your stay in Vientiane and have learnt more about Lao cultures and I look forward to meeting you again in Cambodia next year.

I wish the friendship and unity between and among VECONAC member countries get strengthened and long live.

'VECONAC FOEVER, FOREVER VECONAC'

Now, I would like to declare the official closure of the 18th VECONAC General Assembly. Thank you
